

Become a Member of the RRBA Team!

We appreciate the countless contributions so many people have made over the years, both in terms of money and time. We need your continued support. If you are a first time member - welcome to the association - we need you.

- Join the effort to protect, enhance, and better manage the waters of the Roanoke River Basin
- Work for in-basin use of water resources and against inter-basin water transfers.
- Help achieve a balance between resource protection and reasonable economic growth.
- Promote corporation and coordination among the Basin's stakeholders.
- Stay in touch through the RRBA newsletter and notices of events.
- Help RRBA support water quality, safety, educational and other programs in the Basin.
